LEE CRANDALL WINS CUP

Defeats T. J. W. Brown in Golf Finals for Henry-Williams Trophy at Bannockburn.

afternoon over the Bannockburn course Lee Crandall, jr., defeated T. J. W. Brown for the John Henry-Alva Williams cup. The competition was begun more than a month and a half ago, and Saturday the field had narrowed down to the semi-finals in the lower half, the top half emi-final having been decided in favor of Crandall. Saturday morning Brown defeated J. Martin Scranage, 5-4, and the final was played yesterday. Crandall, who is a ng driver, jumped into the lead at the third hole, and from then on was never led, shooting a score of 44 on the first nine holes and turning 2 up. He won the match on the sixteenth green after having been dormie 3 up. A large gallery of club members followed the inalists in this, next to the club chamonship the most important match of the season and the decision of the tournament committee was called into action by a happening on the ninth hole of the first round. Crandail's ball, after the drive, stopped on the top of a small pile of cut grass, which had been left by the greenkeeper, and, not knowing what to do in the circumstances, the assistance of one of the members of the committee was asked. The rule says: "A pile or mound of cut grass resulting from the mowing of the course is considered to be upkeep. A ball lodging in or lying on such obstruction may be lifted and dropped without penalty."
